Masters of degree or equivalent qualification from a recognised institution of higher learning in the chosen field of study.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a Postgraduate Certificate (P.G. Diploma) with a minimum average of 60% from a recognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.

Prospective candidates must be in possession of a relevant Bachelor’s Honours degree at NQF level 8 with at least a C-grade average (i.e. 60%) or a good postgraduate diploma with a minimum average of 60% from an unrecognised institution.
The Faculty of Health Sciences is home to the School of Medicine, School of Pharmacy, School of Nursing and the School of Public Health.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The School of Medicine is a key medical profession School under the Faculty of Health Sciences. The mission of the School of Medicine is to produce health care professionals whose knowledge, professional skills, and public practice are in tune with the needs of society, practical and scientific advancements, and whose training and education is conducive to the pursuit of professional health care workers’ research and service to the community. It will continuously strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

Why Study Medicine and Surgery at the UNAM School of Medicine?

- It is cost effective. The UNAM programme will be affordable while international standards of excellence will be maintained.
- It provides in-service training in local settings.
- Imagine the joy you will bring to patients when you are in practice.
- It is cost effective. The UNAM programme will be affordable while international standards of excellence will be maintained.

Information on MBChB Degree Programme

- A Score of “2” or better on Ordinary level in Mathematics, Physical Science and English in Namibian Ordinary level or equivalent on the UNAM scale with at least 25 points on the UNAM scale with a grade of D or better in mathematics, scientific, physical science and English in Ordinary level or equivalent on the UNAM scale.
- To apply for the BPharm degree, a candidate must have successfully completed the entire first year BSc in Physical Science, and must have passed Chemistry, and Physics modules with an average of at least 60%.
- It is expected that applicants will be working as a pharmacist in Namibia. The School will continuously strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

The mission of the School of Pharmacy is to be a Regional Centre of excellence, preparing graduates for a lifetime professional career in the provision of pharmaceutical care and to conduct research and development programmes that will produce a quality learning environment conducive to the advancement of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

Namibian National Matriculation Certificate must satisfy at least one of the following requirements:

- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.

To apply for the BPharm degree, a candidate must have successfully completed the entire first year BSc in Physical Science, and must have passed Chemistry, and Physics modules with an average of at least 60%.

PROGRAMMES

PROGRAMMES

DEGREE

- MBChB - Bachelor of Medicine Bachelor of Surgery
- Bachelor of Pharmacy
- Bachelor of Science in Physiology
- Bachelor of Science in Pharmacology

ADMISSION Requirements

The following requirements in order to be admitted to the UNAM School of Medicine and Pharmacy:

- A Score of “2” or better on Ordinary level in Mathematics and Physical Sciences (or a 2 in Mathematics and a 3 in Physical Sciences) (or a 2 in Mathematics or a 3 in Physical Sciences) or a B or better on Ordinary Level for Mathematics and Physical Sciences; or
- A score of “2” or better on Ordinary Level for Biology/Site Science; or
- To apply for the MBChB degree, a candidate must have successfully completed the entire first year BSc curriculum and must have passed in Mathematics, Physical Science and Biology at Ordinary level with an average of at least 60%.
- To apply for the MBChB degree, a candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and applicable qualification from a recognized higher institution.
- To apply for the MBChB degree, a candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and applicable qualification from a recognized higher institution.
- To apply for the MBChB degree, a candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and applicable qualification from a recognized higher institution.

Mature Age Entry Scheme:

- A candidate must be in possession of a NSSC certificate or any other equivalent qualification with an aggregate of at least 55% from a recognised Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.
- A candidate must have successfully completed a relevant and accepted Bachelor's Honours degree at NQF level 8 from a recognized Namibian institution.

to conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

The key objectives of the School of Pharmacy are:

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.

- To conduct research directed to the health care needs of the Namibian society at large, which is instrumental for the development of the country. The School will continually strive for the establishment of a School of Medicine in a wide spectrum of health disciplines and lending support to the health research of Namibia and the country. The School is committed to imparting sound medical knowledge to its graduates.