Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences in collaboration with UNAM Investment Society and Simonis Storm Securities invite you to a public lecture on:

Cryptocurrency – Is it a bursting bubble?

Date:  Wednesday, 19 September 2018
Time:  12:30 to 14:00
Venue:  ILRC Auditorium (Library), Main Campus – Windhoek

Mr Theo Klein
Trainee Wealth Advisor, Simonis Storm Securities

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Theo Klein, studied B.Comm Economic Sciences at Stellenbosch University. He also did his honours (Hons) and Masters in economics (Mcomm) at Stellenbosch University. His master’s thesis investigated Cryptocurrency asset price bubbles. He started working at Simonis Storm in February 2018. He is a trainee wealth advisor, which entails at looking at areas of personal finances and investment.

ABOUT THE LECTURE

Cryptocurrencies such as bitcoin have captured the attention of individuals, investors, academics and governments around the globe. The public lecture will touch on motivation and rationale of cryptocurrency, how cryptocurrency networks works, the benefits and risks involved in cryptocurrency networks and was there a price bubble in Bitcoin prices.

For more information please contact:

Professor Roman Grynberg
Tel: 061 206 4613  |  E-mail: rgrynberg@unam.na

Mr Enos Kamutukwata
Tel: 085 680 3266  |  E-mail: enozk25@gmail.com