

BOOK PROPOSAL FORM

This information is important for us in evaluating your proposed book. Please complete the document in as much detail as possible.

In the submission process, we do not generally consider full manuscripts upfront. Initially we require a proposal, which is put before the UNAM Press Editorial Board. Should the Editorial Board find that your proposal fits our publishing programme, we will request your full manuscript.

UNAM Press is an academic publisher. Please note that we do not publish certain categories including children's books, cookbooks and motivational or self-help books. Theses and dissertations will only be considered after they have been reworked into a book manuscript suitable for a wider academic or general audience. We are not accepting short stories and poetry submissions at the moment.

Ensure that the chapters and manuscript you submit adhere to the guidelines provided in our Instructions to Authors document before submission.

UNAM Press requests the right of first refusal when the full manuscript is submitted. We ask the author not to submit the manuscript or any version thereof to other publishers while the manuscript is in the UNAM Press publishing process.

By submitting this form you confirm that your manuscript is based on your own original research and you have not plagiarised any published source.

1. Date:

2. Author(s)/Editor(s) name (as you wish it to appear on the book):

3. Contact details

Correspondence address	Residential address	Tel (w): _____ Mobile: _____ Email: _____
------------------------	---------------------	---

4. Authors biography (not more than 150 words)

5. Proposed title of the book:

6. Description of the book. What is the book about?

Please provide a brief synopsis of your book detailing the rationale behind the book and the main themes and objectives.

7. Length

- estimated number of A4 pages: _____
- estimated number of words (including notes, appendices and bibliography): _____

8. Research the work is based on for example, primary or secondary data, field research, interviews etc.

9. Expected date of completion of manuscript:

10. Special features (e.g. black and white or colour illustrations / maps / tables / graphs): Please indicate if these are original or, if copyrighted, whether written permission to use them has been granted.

11. Market (the intended readership):

- Is it intended for researchers / postgraduates / undergraduates / special interest groups e.g. professional groups, scholarly societies, or other organisations that would have a particular interest in your book? Please be specific e.g. if intended for postgraduates mention the specific field of study, give the names of professional societies and organisations etc.

- What area of studies would this book fall into (e.g. development studies, linguistics, history, physics, art)

- What specific university courses might use the book as a core text? Please state the course title and the University name, e.g. Introduction to History – University of Namibia

Explain why the book is important:

12. List any similar books and how your book will differ from the competition:

13. Grants or subsidies available for research or publication costs (click in box):

NO

YES (please list)

14. Indicate whether sections of the book have been published (e.g. journal article, book chapter, etc.): Please indicate if you have permission from the original publisher to re-publish.

15. Please list your three latest publications (Book, book chapter or journal article) Provide the full reference/citation

Title

16. Where did you hear about UNAM Press? _____

Please attach the following documents when returning this form:

- Two sample chapters
- List of chapters (table of contents) and description of each chapter
- List of contributing authors and short biography (± 150 words), if applicable.

Send to:
UNAM Press, University of Namibia
E-mail: unampress@unam.na
Tel: (061) 206 4714