

AFFILIATE COURSE ON OFFER

Copyright X: UNAM

COURSE OVERVIEW

CopyrightX: UNAM is a 12-week course offered under the auspices of Harvard Law School, the HarvardX Distance-Learning Initiative, and the Berkman Klein Center for Internet and Society.

The course explores the current law of copyright; the impact of that law on art, entertainment, and industry; and the ongoing debates concerning how the law should be reformed. Through a combination of recorded lectures, assigned readings, weekly seminars, live interactive webcasts, and online discussions, participants in the course examine and assess the ways in which the copyright system seeks to stimulate and regulate creative expression.

This Affiliate CopyrightX course focuses on the US Copyright law.

ADMISSION

Admission to the CopyrightX: UNAM 2022 course is limited to current 4th year students of the School of Law at the University of Namibia who are registered for the Law of Intellectual Property module. Since enrollment is limited, admission is selective.
