

COURSE ON OFFER 2022

Master of Science in Economics

The Master of Science (MSc) in Economics, offered by the Department of Economics in the School of Business Management, Governance & Economics, is a joint collaborative programme under the coordination of the African Economic Research Consortium (AERC). The programme consists of three phases: the first phase is coursework, which covers the core courses and selected electives offered at UNAM; the second phase is the set of electives offered through a Joint Facility for Electives (JFE) in a country chosen by the AERC's Academic Board; and the final phase involves theses. The 2022/23 intake will commence in July 2022.

Objectives

The collaborative Master's programme aims to assist participating universities to enhance the capacity of locally based researchers to conduct policy-relevant economic inquiry; promoting retention of such capacity; and encouraging its application in the policy context. The programme is designed for graduates with a strong interest in economics, with the aim of strengthening skills in quantitative methods and econometric techniques needed for advanced studies in economics, research and the academic profession.

Admission Requirements

1. A candidate must have a Bachelor of Economics (Honours) or an equivalent degree from UNAM or any other recognized institution of higher learning.
2. A candidate must have a minimum of a

C-grade average (Lower Second Class degree) i.e. 60% average.

3. All applications will be reviewed and shortlisted by a committee of the Department of Economics.
4. The Departmental Committee, if deemed necessary, may interview prospective students.
5. Applicants should note that satisfying the minimum requirements and submission of application does not necessarily ensure admission.

Duration

The Master of Science degree in Economics cannot be obtained in less than two years of study, and must be completed within a period of three academic years. There will be no possibility of re-admission after a student has been discontinued from the programme.
